Dedication ceremonies for the new Tempe West Justice Court will be held at 3 p.m., Wednesday, October 2 at 8240 S. Kyrene Road, Suite #113, Tempe, Arizona. The public and media are also invited to an open house from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Guest speakers for the event include: Arizona Supreme Court Chief Justice Charles E. Jones, Superior Court Presiding Judge Colin Campbell, Maricopa County District 1 Supervisor Fulton Brock, Tempe City Councilmember Ben Arredondo and Maricopa County Administrator David Smith.

"In time, we envision a municipal court complex combined to offer multiple services," said Maricopa County District 1 Supervisor Fulton Brock. "Our goal is to make courts and county services operate as efficiently as possible."

Tempe West Justice of the Peace Victor "Mike" Wilkins added, "We are very pleased with our facility that meets our needs to better serve the community."

The new 10,000-square-foot facility provides redesigned and renovated courtrooms, customer service areas, lock-up facilities, mediation areas and offices for prosecutors and defenders.
